Description

This Interactive French Reader has been designed for a dynamic first reading experience in French. The book is divided into eighteen reading sections, each one with quickly accessible vocabulary lists and exercises. The answers for each exercise are readily available from the exercise page.

Every word and expression in the reading sections is covered in the vocabulary lists. No need for a dictionary! Because the words and expressions in the vocabulary lists are presented in the order in which they occur in the text, difficult sentences are more easily understood. Idiomatic expressions are broken down into their individual parts and then fully translated for a clear understanding of the text.

With eighteen reading sections, twenty-five vocabulary lists, eighteen exercises with complete answer keys, this Interactive French Reader will make reading French a more enjoyable experience.
